Reports: The Treasurer reported a £19 excess of income over expenditure – a marked improvement on last year, when poor weather had impacted on the number of games played. It was noted that there would be no proposals to alter match fees or subscriptions from last year, although the Treasurer made a plea for players and captains for prompt payment and collection – especially of subscriptions, with the added imperative of insurance only covering official members. £270 worth of subscriptions are still due from last year, and there remains some colts kit still to be sold. Team Captains, to varying degrees, again bemoaned the lack of availability which at times made putting winning teams out very difficult. Alex Mutucumarana refuted the perception that 1st XI players were unwilling to play for the 2nd XI, and reported that the 1st XI, despite underachieving, achieved safety in Tucker 1. The 2nd XI suffered the most from this lack of consistent availability, Ali Khan reporting that 52 players had turned out during a season in which relegation could not be avoided. The 3rd XI fared better, going into the last game of the season in second place but ending up in sixth. It was noted that a number of promising young players had performed well, and should be encouraged further this year.

David Mitchell thanked the Treasurer and team captains for their continued efforts.

Election of New Members: the following were duly elected: John Adler, Bill Downer, Josh Gray, Tom Grint, Tom Hogan, Alex Howarth, James Johnson, Will Langmead, Ravi Mahendra, David Noble, Mike Wells. Ed Bearfield-Smith and Julian Chilvers were duly elected as Vice Presidents.

Nick Austin reported that he would co-ordinate Sunday Casuals matches, but would not necessarily play. It was agreed that a captain would be appointed on a game-by-game basis, and that where possible at least three colts would be selected.

Any Other Business: The President thanked Andrew Redfern for compiling a database of contact details, and asked players and captains to help keep it up to date. Michael Griggs offered his services in attempting to secure sponsorship. The committee would discuss the need for more social events, with Alex Mutucumarana suggesting the possibility of a golf day/weekend.
